June 2015 Report

2014 Assessment

We have processed 120 Certificate of Errors for the 2014 tax bills at this time.

2015 Assessment

We have received Assessor Book back from one Assessor at this time their books are to be turned in by June 15 but may be later because of the Quad Year. Miles continues work on the Grisham, Walshville and East Fork assessments.

2015 BOARD OF REVIEW

Board met Friday May 8 to review rules for the 2015 session and made some minor changes. They will meet later this month to review exemption applications.

Exemptions

We continue to receive senior exemption renewals and Disabled Veterans/Persons exemptions. Changes to the Disabled Veterans Exemptions have been approved by both the House and Senate and are waiting to be signed by the Governor. These changes will require revisions to the existing application and renewal forms and become effective for 2015 payable 2016.

Miscellaneous

Sara and I attended class in Effingham May 13-15. I will attend Area 4 meeting June 30.

GIS

Cassidy is still working with Chris Daniels on the revisions to the Enterprise Zone maps we hope to have maps available for the Mayors to review at their meeting in June. Cassidy and I met with Heather Hampton+Knodle, Tony Hard and Chris to discuss what will be needed to create an accurate legal description.

Pictometry

The Flyover has been delivered and someone from Pictometry will be on sight to install the new data. We have been assigned a Technical Trainer for additional training which should be scheduled soon.

Beacon Schneider

I have included the activity report for the website.
