QUALIFICATIONS:

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

Please review the information checklist at the end of this brochure. Knowing all of this information in advance of your visit will greatly reduce the amount of time it takes to process your application. (Important information to know includes: the date your most recent divorce/civil union dissolution was finalized, the spelling of your parents full names, and the place of birth for yourself and your parents.) If you or your partner has had a divorce or civil union dissolution within the past 6 months, you MUST provide a certified copy of the divorce decree or civil union dissolution. In case of death of a previous spouse within the last 6 months, proof of death is needed.

AGE REQUIREMENT:

In order to be married in Illinois without parental consent, you must be at least 18 years of age. If you are 16 or 17 years of age, both parents must sign a parental consent form in the County Clerk's Office and have a valid Driver's License or State Photo ID for identification at the time you apply for your license. If it is not possible for your parents to sign in this office, it maybe done before the County Clerk in your parent's County. If a parent is deceased, a death certificate, proof of guardianship or court order waiving consent must be presented.

PROOF OF AGE:

It will be necessary to show proof of age when applying for a marriage license. A valid Driver's License or State Photo ID is acceptable. For those under the age of 18, a certified copy of their birth record is necessary.

NON-RESIDENTS:

Non-residents cannot obtain a marriage license if the said marriage would be void in their state.

RETURN OF LICENSE:

The Officiant to the ceremony must return the license to the County Clerk's Office within 10 days after the date of the marriage. An envelope is provided for the license's return. If, for any reason, you are not married, it is your responsibility to return the license to the County Clerk's office to be filed. Under no circumstances should a license be destroyed after it is issued.

USE OF MARRIAGE LICENSE:

Your marriage license must be obtained in the County in Illinois where the marriage will take place. The license is not transferable to any other county or state. If you are not sure as to what county the particular city of marriage is located, contact this office for assistance. Marriage in Illinois may be performed by either a person of the clergy or a judge. Witnesses are not required by Illinois law. The license becomes valid the day after it is issued and is valid for 60 days.

MARRIAGE BY A JUDGE:

If you wish to be married by a Judge, please contact the Montgomery County Circuit Clerk at: 217-532-9546 for more information.

PUBLISHING NAMES IN NEWSPAPERS

Generally, the names of couples who apply for a marriage license are published in area newspapers. The list is sent weekly to the newspapers, and the names are published at their discretion. If you do not want your name to appear in the newspaper, please let the County Clerk staff know this request at the time of license issuance. Since this information is of public record, we can not guarantee your request for privacy will be granted.
